Basketball Season is underway at Tait. We have many grades 6 and 7 students on our two teams as well as grade 5 students practicing for future teams. Thank you so much to all of our teachers for volunteering their time to coach and referee.

Everyone is welcome to watch the home games in our Tait gym or cheer on the teams at neighbouring schools.

Here are some new guidelines from the School District to remind us of Spectator Conduct and Expectations.

School Athletics
Spectator Conduct and Expectations

We aim to create a positive, fun and inclusive environment that supports learning and fair play. Spectators are expected to uphold the Richmond School District Code of Conduct.

Be Respectful
Treat everyone with courtesy, kindness and consideration at all times.

Celebrate Effort
Mistakes are part of the game. Celebrate progress, not perfection.

Model Fair Play
Applaud great plays from both teams and keep comments positive.

Respect Privacy
Avoid taking or sharing photos or videos of student-athletes, coaches, officials, school teams or spectators.

Support a Fun and Inclusive Environment
Cheer for effort and teamwork while encouraging every participant's learning and growth.

Together, we create a safe, respectful and enjoyable atmosphere for all!
